Alma Mater

Oh hear thy voices one in Song
Holy Cross, Oh Holy Cross!
Thy spirits loyal, true and strong
Holy Cross, Oh Holy Cross!
Thy purple banner floats on high,
While songs of praise swell to the sky.
Thy honored name will never die,
Holy Cross, Oh Holy Cross!

Events section

"Unless each day can be looked back upon by an individual as one in which he has had some fun, some joy, some real satisfaction, that day is a loss."

This section does not depict every event that took place this year since there are far to many to count and I am sure a few events not all of us want to remember.
However, in the next few pages you will find memories from some of Mount Saint James most exciting & Memorable times of the 2006-2007 school year including homecoming and Spring Weekend.

"Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away"

Homecoming

Homecoming starts early for the Holy Cross community as undergrads and alumni come together to pack freshmen field in preparation for the b ig game. Cars packed full of food and excitement line the field to unite Sader Nation. It was Saturday September 30, 2006 and the weather could not have been more perfect.. Our football team took on Fordham and pulled off an impressive win of 28-21. This win brought the Holy Cross Crusders to a 3-2 record on the season. Mt. St. James could not have been more excited to host a victory and reunite past and present members of the Holy Cross community.

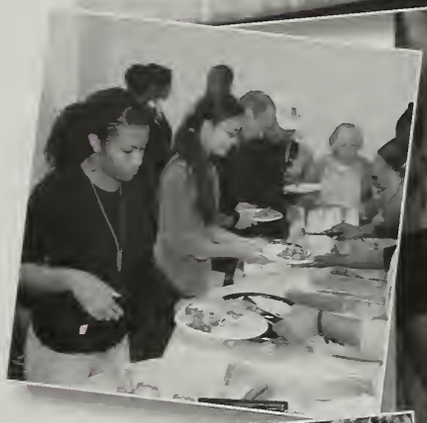
Opp Knocks

Opportunity Knocks provides roomates with a chance to set each other up with that speacial someone or to enjoy a fun night out with their closest friends. On October 21, 2006 at 10 pm students came together in Hogan Ballroom to dance the night away. Dressed in semi-formal attire, students celebrated this red carpet event. Lights, Camera, Action.....

Shake Your Moneymaker Holy Cross!

Family Weekend



Though storm clouds hovered and rain showered the Holy Cross campus on the weekend of October 28th-29th, devoted parents proved determined to bring students a little piece of home during Parent's Weekend. While students eagerly awaited homemade baked goods and free steakhouse dinners with the fam, parents enjoyed reconnecting with their children and memories of their own college experience. With events like the spirited choral performance put on by the Holy Cross Choir and the popular Casino Night, Parent's Weekend proved to be a blast for the entire family!

Halloween

While Halloween actually fell on a Tuesday this year, students braved stormy weather and lingering parents (coincidentally, it was Parent's Weekend) to properly celebrate on Saturday night. Residents of Worcester may have been bewildered as superheros, cowgirls, and Snow White and her dwarves visited everywhere from Caro to Kendig Streets for some friendly trick-or-treating. Costumes, ranging from the simple standards to the creatively outlandish, included geishas, players on the '90s game show Legends of the Hogan Temple, and even a Wendy's Frosty! Between the turbulent conditions and crazy costumes, Halloween 2006 fueled Kimball conversation for the rest of the week!

Halloween

Christmas

Ignited at the annual O'Kane Christmas Tree Lighting on December 5th, Christmas Spirit soon enveloped the Holy Cross Campus. From festive caroling and intense hall decorating to Christmas pajama parties and a mysteriously massive metal candy cane outside Healy, students turned Mount St. James into a virtual North Pole.

With finals approaching and the end of the semester in sight, stress and excitement were channeled into celebration of all forms. From simply enjoying hot cocoa and a movie to joyous caroling on Caro, Holy Cross students embraced the delight of the season and ended the first semester with a spirited bang!

St. Patrick's Day

March 17, 2007

Though Holy Cross is a traditionally small Irish Catholic college, the past decade has seen the expansion of the student body and an exciting and significant growth in diversity. One thing's for sure. though: on St. Patrick's Day at Holy Cross, everyone is Irish. Whether it's eating green dessert in Kimball, rising bright and early to enjoy cultural customs and traditions, or donning leprechaun fashions and plastering themselves with green, Crusaders know how to celebrate Irish Pride. Undoubtedly the biggest party of the year, St. Patrick's Day unifies the campus as the infectious spirit of Crusaders envelopes Mount Saint James in joyous enthusiasm.

As I let go

Though you think you already know
I'll remember I thought you looked like an angel
Wrapped in pink, so soft and warm
You've had me wrapped around your finger
Since the day you were born.

From the outside in
Chase your dreams but always know the road
That'll lead you home again
Go on take on this old world
But to me you know you'll always be
